Assumption College 2002

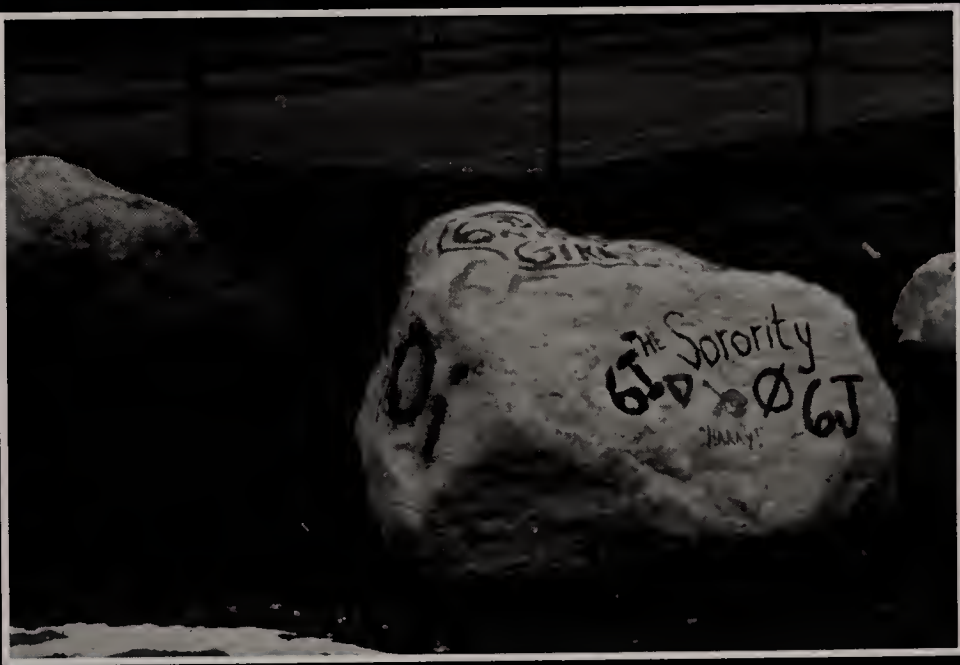

Dedicated to those lost

"I pray that our country will rise up from this devastation, and resolve never to give up hope in tomorrow. There are no real words to express my anguish, my grief, and my complete incomprehension of the situation at hand. But, for what it's worth, I try to make sense of the situation. Because there are no words."

- Liz O'Donnell, '02

"The Assumption College community has lost one of its own, Tom V. Linehan, Jr., a 1984 graduate of Assumption. Mr. Linehan was the head of Marsh and McClellan Accounting Firm which was located in the North Tower of the World Trade Center." - Sheila Halloran, '03

on September 11, 2001

"God Bless America, Land that I love"

"In this time of tragedy, we have the chance to really make things count. Instead of worrying about the future, enjoy today. Tell the people in your life how much you love them, write that letter you have been putting off and let go of grudges. It is not easy to live in a world filled with uncertainty, with danger seeming to lurk at every corner. However, we have today and that is a precious gift to enjoy. Each day is a new beginning and is something worth holding on to." - Kelly Flynn, '02

Thomas Plough

Thomas A. Plough

Congratulations to the men and women of the Class of 2002. Aside from the fact that this is the first class of Assumption College students that I have watched make their way from freshmen status to alumni stature, we have all endured the tragedy of September 11, 2001 and its continuing aftermath.

While I certainly don't know all of you in any individual way, I know enough of you very well through the classroom, in your leadership involvement, athletic pursuits, campus ministry, volunteer service, residential life activity, music and theater productions, campus media, and other special events to be very confident about my statements concerning the Class of 2002. Your class represents our Greyhound theme of Learn. Achieve. Contribute and possesses the educational outcomes of competence, character and compassion that are outward signs of our Assumption College motto "Until Christ Be Formed In You." I firmly believe that you will always value your years on this campus and I hope you will keep us informed about the future chapters of your lives as they unfold.

Remember the words of columnist Jack Anderson:

If it's not right, don't do it
If it's not true, don't say it
If it's not yours, don't take it.

Student Government Association (SGA)

"Leadership is the art of getting someone else to do something you want done because he wants to do it."

- Dwight D. Eisenhower

The Student Government Association consists of five executive positions and ten senator positions from each of the four classes. Weekly meetings are held where proposals are debated and voted on.

Executive Officers include President Ryan Dunn, Vice President of Academic Affairs Beth Keely, Vice President of Student Life Chuck Iacono, Treasurer Brian MacKinnon, Senate Speaker Paul Moran, and Senate Clerk Amy Beadle.

Senior Class Officers are President Andy Cahill, Vice President Mike Luzzo, Secretary Dave Blodgett, and Treasurer Stan Benjamin. The Senior Senators are Joe DaCosta, Meg Foley, Jen MacDonald, Peter Milynarski, Ester Schiano, and Kerrie Tansey.

"Without a sense of caring, there can be no sense of community."

Anthony J. D'Angelo

Campus Activities Board (CAB)

CAB is responsible for bringing outside performers to campus as well as showcasing student talent through various events and activities, such as comedians, coffeehouses, trips, concerts, and formal dances.

Reach Out Center

The Reach Out Center organizes the placement of student volunteers in various agencies across Worcester. These volunteer services include Best Buddies, Special Olympics, Veterans Shelter, mentoring programs, and the Friendly House.

World Cultures Alliance

The World Cultures Alliance is an organization dedicated to uniting the various cultures of the world by recognizing and celebrating our similarities and our differences, our desires, and our common goals.

"Nothing great in the world has ever been accomplished without passion." G.W.F. Hegel

Phoenix

The Phoenix is the official literary magazine of Assumption College and allows students to display their Literary and Artistic talents. The journal features poetry, short fiction, essays, and artwork contributed by Assumption students.

Le Provocateur

The Le Provocateur is the student newspaper and is responsible to inform the community it serves: students, faculty, administrators, staff, and others involved with the college.

WACT

The Assumption television station was created to effectively produce a number of broadcasts on Channel 39, which is student run, with the aid of Tom Burke.

It provides hands-on learning for students interested in work behind and in front of the camera.

"Progress lies not in enhancing what is, but advancing toward what will be." Kahlil Gibran, "A Handful of Sand on the Shore"

A.C. Upstage

A.C. Upstage is the drama club on campus. This club provides students with a stage to showcase their theatre related ambitions, whether it be through acting, directing, producing, or in musical production.

A.C. Chorale

The A.C. Chorale is the college's concert choir. It provides students with the opportunity to perform concerts on campus for Parent/Alumni Weekend, presents a traditional candle-light Lessons and Carols for the Christmas season, presents concerts with full orchestra and instrumental ensembles, and goes on tour every two years.

Classics Club

The Classics Club is open to anyone with an interest in the classical world. Although the club focuses primarily on Greece and Rome, its interests also extend to Egypt and the near east. Various activities are planned, including videos, museum visits, and lectures.

"The price of greatness is responsibility."
Sir Winston Churchill

Peer Tutoring:

Academic Support Center

The ASC is made up of students who are nationally certified as peer tutors in their respective disciplines. Peer tutoring promotes the idea of collaborative learning and helps Assumption students to become independent learners.

English Club

The English Club is focused on fostering interest and activity in the field of English for both majors and non-majors.

START

START is a retreat program, which focuses on the issues of community, identity, commitment, and faith. The retreats are meant to be a time to reflect and to get to know yourself, others, and God better.

Discussion and Dinner

The D&D group gathers each Tuesday evening at 7:00 for a free home-cooked pasta dinner and discussion about the challenges of living a life of Christian faith. Topics range from pacifism and capital punishment to miracles and how to live out your faith on a day-to-day basis on a college campus.

SEARCH

SEARCH is a retreat program, facilitated by college students, that specifically reaches out to middle school and high school students preparing for Confirmation in the Worcester area. SEARCH bases its retreats on talks, small groups, and other activities.

Sigma Tau Delta

International English

Honor Society

This international honor society recognizes excellent students in English studies and confers distinction for high achievement in language and literature. It provides these students an opportunity to get together and build a sense of community.

ALANA

Step Team

Cheerleading

Cheerleading offers all students who have either competed in high school or have an interest in the sport a way to compete against one another and other colleges. They also compete in the NCAA division II tournament.

★MIDNIGHT MADNESS★

On October 14th, the Men's and Women's Basketball Teams kicked off their season. SGA Senators and Class Officers offered face painting, a light and sound show, and free giveaways. Both teams competed in slam-dunk contests, while students came to cheer them on.

MIDNIGHT BREAKFAST

Holiday Ball

"A Stroll in the Park"

Seniors and Juniors attended the annual Holiday Ball, organized by CAB, on November 30th at the Worcester Centrum. This evening was a chance for everyone to come together and make memories. As Nicole Leone stated in her December 5th Le Provocateur Article "A Stroll in the Park," "There was a cocktail hour prior to the main event. I saw a couple faculty members mingling with the students... This ball is something we will be able to look back on when we graduate and remember the fantastic time we experienced." There were so many things that happened that night, both negative and positive; one date proposed to his girlfriend during the evening. As David Bowie sings, "Let's sway, sway, through the crowd to an empty space... Let's dance, for fear tonight is all."

Spring Fever

April 20th, 2002
Hagan Center Lawn

Over 1,000 students showed up for this CAB sponsored event. Many sat down on the lawn and listened to local bands, such as September Twilight, Incident 14, and New Pond Fondle. Human Foosball, inflatable playgrounds, and much more were a huge success even with the Spring showers that occurred later in the afternoon.

The Halloween Dance

Ghost and Goblins Galore

Witches, cowgirls, bunches of grapes, beauty queens, and a blue man crowded into Hagan Hall on October 31. The annual Halloween Dance put on by the freshmen class was held again this year. These ghosts and goblins danced the night away until the haunting hours were over and it was time for them to go back into hiding for another year.

A Night Under The Stars

Walking into Charlie's, it felt like a different place. Magically it had been transformed. The tables and chairs that had been there earlier in the day had been removed and replaced with strings of lights, balloons and glittery streamers.

Under these, many freshmen and sophomores danced the night away with their friends and dates. It was a great night for all.

Junior Class Trip

A weekend in Montreal

Every year the junior class takes a class trip to Montreal, Canada for a weekend. This year was no different. After an eight hour bus ride these eager students were able to spend three days and two nights seeing the sights of Montreal. Many spent the days sight-seeing and danced the nights away in just a few of the many clubs that Montreal has to offer.

Pup Cup

May 3-4 2002

Dorm VS. Dorm

Pup Cup 2002 was a huge success. Festivities started off Friday night at the Mr. and Miss AC contest. 6 male and 6 female contestants competed in beachwear and talent competitions. After those events 6 contestants were chosen to go onto the final rounds where they competed in eveningwear and a question round. At the end of the night Mike Dunlea and Aurelia Eisenzopf were crowned the new Mr. and Miss AC. Contests continued into Saturday. Ice cream eating contest, a pickle toss, and a human scavenger hunt in Taylor started off the second days events. Afterwards outside of Hagan an inflatable obstacle course, a human javelin, and a slip and slide were hits with everyone. With volleyball games and an alumni football game happening there was enough to keep everyone busy. The afternoon finished off with a BBQ on the Hagan lawn. To end the festivities a semiformal dance was held Saturday night in Hagan gymnasium.

"Sometimes in spite of difference, sometimes against all odds, some things are meant to happen. It's written in the stars." ~ Amie Comeaux

WHAT WAS YOUR WORST EXPERIENCE WITH A ROOMMATE?

Walked in on her and her "friend" dancing horizontally - fighting - I put my foot through 6D's kitchen window - Mr. Pumpkinhead or whatever his name was - she danced around the bunkbeds like she was a stripper - the night she brought a very tall boy home to our bunk beds (she was on the top bunk) - cake fight - shaving creamed my dresser - my roommate was asleep on her bed and there was a lit cigarette on the wooden dresser - walking in and finding all her stuff packed to leave 2 weeks after school started - I peed in his shoes - living with Mother Teresa for 2 years - being told I was the cause of all her problems - dealing with her crazy meowing boyfriend - being told I wasn't wanted as a roommate anymore - walking in on my roommate and her man doing their deed! - my roommate fell off the top bunk and broke her back - waking up to my bed shaking - too bad to mention - having $200 walk away - being overheard - her hooking up while we're all in the room

W H A T Detour This: Traffic & Ghetto

People who do not know how to drive - yellow cab dispatcher - it's kind of dirty - how it likes to die - the scary feeling you get when you walk by yourself at night - Worcester trash at the bar - Route 9 traffic - how everywhere you go takes forever, even just a trip to the store - everything but the bars - the scummy neighborhoods - poverty level - Park Ave. - Price Chopper - nothing to do - sketchy people - too many one way streets! - the rotary - the Worcester trash (not the garbage) - people don't know what blinkers are for - the RMV - the 1-out, 1-in rule at Leitrims - Having to buy a Mass ID! - crazy cab drivers - Assumption public safety officers - the Greendale Mall is trashy - driving up steep hills in a standard car - the same scene all the time! - what's not to like about beautiful Worcester? - not enough shopping areas - not enough night spots - the sky is always gray - that it takes a half hour to get around

U LIKE ABOUT WORCESTER?

WHAT IS THE BEST THING YOU'VE EVER DONE TO PROCRASTINATE?

Took a nap - talked on the phone - went out drinking - watched Lifetime movies all day long! - no comment - went to a WWF show - hung out with friends all night long - playstation - went to the gym - sleep, it's my favorite thing to do - watched T.V. - went to the Apple Orchard - played on playground - went to Kenmore Diner instead of studying - went to the grocery store for Ben & Jerry's - drove to Wendy's for frostys - EAT! - made a wall of shame - made the "Rules Assumption College Guys must follow" list - went to the beach - cleaned my car, my room, and did a different assignment - played text games for 7 hours - played marbles on the computer - anything I can think of - watched the T.V. Guide channel - played video games - went to Dunkin' Donuts - checked away messages

FAVORITE CLASS?

A Letter From Your...

Favorite Professor: Susan Scully-Hill and Runner-Up: Dana Aspinall

Dear Class of 2002,

We want to thank you for your acknowledgment of us as positive influences on your four years here at Assumption College, and also want you to know what a delight it is for you to honor us in this fashion. We both agree that the Class of 2002's recognition of our place in your lives stands at the top of our own list of what we feel to be the many privileges and achievements of being here at Assumption. Your decision comes to us as one of those rare, indescribably valuable treasures that we will hold dear for the remainder of our lives.

Since our time here, we both have advocated for higher standards of learning and achievement, and simultaneously sought out means of making the real reasons you all came to Assumption College--knowledge, experience, community, and the pursuit of truth--more accessible and fulfilling. Neither of us considers him or herself unchallenging in our course objectives, nor do we admire or encourage the easier avenues of thought or expression. Instead, we see the college experience as an opportunity for one to apply the finishing touches of maturity and responsibility onto oneself, and to let the world know one is ready to take a significant place in our world. We sincerely believe that these two qualities will carry one a long way in the world and distinguish one in his or her journey through life. Your choice of us as two helpful personalities during your time here speaks to our mutual vision of Assumption College's purpose and meaning.

But the similarities between us do not end in our shared vision. As many of you already know, we, too, began our careers at Assumption College on that same sunny August day back in 1998. We, too, were "freshmen" who did not know the campus very well, who did not know immediately which buildings housed our classes, and who did not know fully what Assumption College offered us in the way of friendships and opportunities for personal development.

We, too, needed to adjust to the registrar's decisions concerning enrollments, class space, and time allotted for those often brisk walks from class meeting to class meeting. We, too, had to conform to Public Safety's designation of parking spaces and availability of spots. We, too, had to acquaint ourselves with Charlie's (then called The Junction) and Taylor Dining Hall's long lines and cuisine.

We also needed to balance the demands and expectations of the administration with those of our particular faculties; we had to calibrate expeditiously and accurately the academic expectations of our departments with our own--and adjust to greater expectations of performance and production than we had in our previous environments as instructors and graduate students. In other words, just like you, we found ourselves in an unfamiliar atmosphere full of new demands and accelerated expectations.

And while we will remain behind to continue our professions here, you will be walking out into another unfamiliar environment full of newer and--at times--greater challenges and opportunities. But we still will share many similarities, for we both will continue to learn and to grow and to seek for the truth in our existences. And while we thank you sincerely and heartfully for your acknowledgment of us in your lives, we also want to thank you for the opportunity to learn from you. You have taught us more than you know--about teaching, about people, about opportunity and challenge, and about the importance of Assumption College in all our lives.

WHAT DO YOU LIKE ABOUT WORCESTER?

the bars - stealing snacks from Exxon - the central location in New England. If it's not here it's not far - hot dog man outside Leitrims - dollar drafts at Leitrims - Greendale - Worcester has everything you want, but it's still relatively small - Park Ave. - Thursday nights - Shrewsbury St.

WHAT'S YOUR FAVORITE WORCESTER HANGOUT?

Mahoney's - Jyll's house - Boynton - Suney's - New England Roast Beef - Kenmore Diner - Wendy's
- Irish Times - Foo Bar -

Night Life at Leitrims

The No. #1 Assumption Hangout

~ By Meg Foley ~

For years the senior classes of Assumption College have all found an off campus hang out to call a second home. The class of 2002 chose Leitrims on Park Ave.

Reasons why the class of 2002 may go to Leitrims:

The first night back at school
Halloween

The Patriots win the Superbowl
Procrastination

You want the best hot dog ever at 2 AM!

Pedro is pitching

The Yankees suck!

It's Thursday night

You have no money

You have a class at 8:30AM

You failed an exam, you passed an exam, same thing?

You want to dance on the bar,

You end up falling off the bar

You're bored

The sun came up, the sun went down

But when you look back at the years at Assumption College the best reason you have to go to Leitrims:

YOU ARE THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 2002, CONGRATULATIONS!

What is the best excuse you've given to a professor?

My car got hit and I had to go to the insurance company for pictures - My grandpa was dying in the hospital - never had excuses. I'm a trooper and always made it to class - I'm sick - I'm a Senior and I do not feel I need to attend - My uncle's sick - I had mono - I've given so many - I'm still drunk - Overslept - No answer - It was true: I fell out of bed and hit my chin, when going to get my alarm the problem was I was fine but went to Tatnuck Bookseller with bad influences - My dog needed to go to the vet - I had to take a relative to the doctor's - I have a rash on my face - My ride was leaving early (even though I had my own car) - felt nauseous - My roommate died - It's raining and tomorrow's St. Patrick's Day
- I thought you were still in Georgia? - I said I had the flu
when I was really hungover
My grandfather died - I called from a cell phone in traffic and said the car broke down - I don't give excuses, just don't show up - I have to go golfing - I don't feel good
- I have to go to a funeral - My wisdom teeth - The
"Schultz Excuse" - Doctors appointment - I'm sorry, I just drank too much last night - My sister was having a baby - I have cramps!

Have you had at least one of the same roommates for 4 years?

Yes No

WHAT IS THE CRAZIEST THING YOU HAVE EVER DONE AT A PARTY?

Got naked and ran around - Took shots of vinegar at six - danced on the coach and then fell off - sledded down the hill - punched a kid and did not remember it until I woke up with blood on my shirt! - Got completely naked - I don't do crazy things. I'm a good girl! - showed my butt to a digital camera - stepped all over a card game on top of a table - drank 22 shots - tripped down to my boxers while dancing - balanced a hot glass on my head - I was sober at them all - danced on the bar at Leitrim's - performed a "G" Rated strip tease to "I Touch Myself" - no answer - filled up an inflatable swimming pool and had a pool party - danced on a table - I don't remember - danced on furniture and fell - stole from the apartment - kissed my roommate, while playing Survivor flip cup - poured beer on others and did not know I was doing it - flashed everyone - fell over - stole things from other people's rooms - body shots - hooked up in the bathroom - brought a random keg to the apartment - danced on top of bars, couches, tables, you name it... fairly consistently - made stuffed animals have sex - I can't tell you. It was too embarrassing! - bit a glass - peed in the hallway outside my room, got caught and got the party in my room broken up - tried to flash everyone! - danced around with my legs wrapped around a boy - a keg stand - danced on the counter and stole stuff - pretended I was a stripper and danced on a lamp - danced on the kitchen table and smoked butts inside - took my clothes off and flashed people - Everything crazy I have done, I blacked out. I do not remember

What movie/show best imitated your college experience?

Your #1 Reality Show:
Real World

By: Eric Aldrich

The Emperor of Ice Cream ☆
Waits tables at a diner
Where only familiar gargoyles go.
They speak only in sighs
Of who's and what's and why's.
Aging asphalt has heard ☆
All tales told
With yellow lines on black,
No yellow brick road...
They've driven trucks and ridden buses
Woven intermittent cusses
Into escapades they've long since failed
And now they're all securely nailed ☆
On swivel stools condemned to recall ☆
All sorts of things that never happened
With coffee spoons on Sweet Life napkins.

Dreaming of the Ropeswing

By: Eric Carlson

In the spring
when grass
is greenest, we'll lie outside, looking into the sky
feeling the evening
breeze will blow tightening our bodies.

The moon will reflect on the lake,
and we'll run
towards the water grabbing the rope, swinging over the water letting go, falling in headfirst.

The Sky's the Limit

By:
Bill Antonitis

In summer, when stars
hang low: dull pennies
in the darkness,
and the moon
drops down
like a quarter,
we'll lie back squirming,
raising grasping fingers, praising nature for its bounty.

never been, but a has was once an are."

JOSEPH ANDREWS

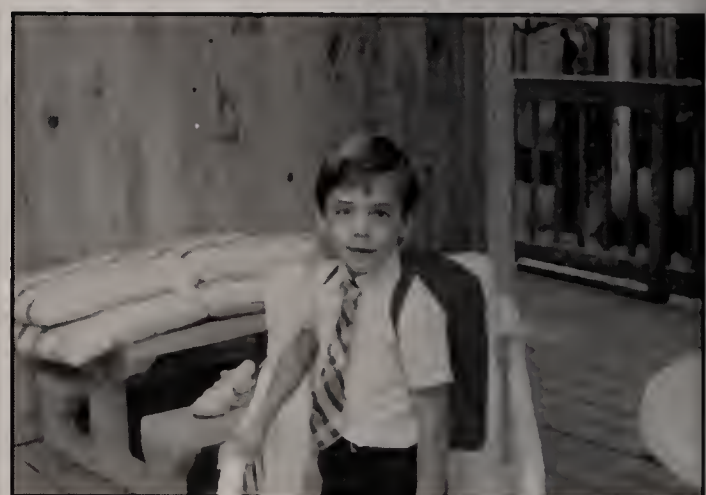

Congratulations Joe!

It seems like only yesterday, you were our little boy
We shared together your childhood days, which always were a joy
We watched you go off to school, your hopes and dreams so bright,
You gave all your very best and everything turned out right
Many say the teenage years, test parents patience, heart and soul
We saw a determined young man, who set and achieved his goals
The Deans list and a full time job, distinguished you from the crowd
Take a well earned pat on the back, and know we're forever proud

Love, Mom and Dad

MARK ANGELICOLA

We never had a moments doubt that this day would come. It just seems to have come so quickly. One day we're sending you off to Kindergarten and in what seems like an instant, you're graduating from College.

You've always been such a source of pride and happiness to all of us. We're truly blessed to have you as ours.

Congratulations, Mark! You should be so proud. You've earned your degree with hard work and diligence.

May your every dream come true...

We love you,

 You came into our life
 On an early November night,
 So tiny and perfect and warm,
 The sight of you touched our hearts

There is no way to express
 The joy and sense of happiness,
 In seeing your peaceful sleep,
 And the strength of our family bond

Being with you, observing your birth
 Kicking and breathing and that first cry
 Whatever the future may hold,
 We saw the magnificence of your start

As time passes, we can be certain,
 That the joy will be shared with you
 What heights, what potential you reach
 Is the sum and the part of us all.

Congratulations on a job well done!

Congratulations Eric. We're so proud of you and all you've accomplished. You set high goals and achieved them through hard work and determination. This has been a blast! Thank you all! Joe: for giving me the opportunity to have fun on the yearbook this year. Thank you everyone who has helped me throughout the years, friends, peers, professors and staff. Chung: for being the first person I met on campus and sticking by me! Jon: for being a familiar and friendly face always. I am going to miss being the papergirl for the ladies over at Charlie's. Debbie, Kathy, Mary, Anne and everyone else. You have all taken good care of me. Thank you Kate for not killing me. Sara: for being around and getting one of the most difficult sections done. You did it all on your own though! Also for helping me out when I am down. That goes for everyone. Angel, Katie, and Brendan: for your help in gathering pictures and being great friends. Angel: for striving through your own problems and still having time to help me in mine. Audrey: for keeping my head on straight and allowing me to snap millions of pictures of you (and Dan). We will always have Bauer and Traylor memories. I am so glad you grew to love Bauer. I told you he is a good one! Patti, thank you for being-there! From Walker Percy to Heidegger, it has been fun. Mary: for transferring to Assumption so Krissy and I could meet you! Nick you should have came to Assumption! Prof. Traylor: for giving me the chance to enjoy something different, Philosophy! Keep on preaching! Prof. LeDain for keeping me interested in Theology and for all the Ecumenical lectures. I have learned so much! Prof. Bauer for trying your best to make us THINK! The years here at Assumption have been unbelievable. From the Registrar's Office to the Post Office everyone is so friendly and down to earth. I have met the best people and the most interesting people. Not all are still here at Assumption. Some have transferred or graduated, but I will not forget any of you. EVERYONE who has not graduated yet, keep at it and I will try my best to visit. Sean: You noticed me! That is the most important thing in the world! I do love you even when you're up in the butt! Thank you for putting up with me when I'm the pain in the butt. Krissy: for always being-there to help me, from collecting papers to the yearbook! Look I have graduated! I can't begin to express the stream of emotions that I feel,
The experiences and memories that we've made seem surreal.

We walked in as strangers, but left so much more,
You are my laughs, my dreams, my tears- that I thank you for.

Uncertain days lie ahead, this much may be true,
But know that when I walk away, I take a part of each of you.
The road will twist, the road will turn, the road may lead us apart,
No matter where I go, or who I meet, you are forever in my heart.

For the friends life has given me, and the life friends have given me- Love & Thanks
